

KILLS SELF AS COP ATTEMPTS TO DISARM HIM

While Dillsburg's chief of police, Donald K. Fry, attempted to get near him with the intention of disarming him, Glenn Wilbur King, 29-year-old World War II veteran, placed the muzzle of a .22 calibre rifle against his head and pulled the trigger Sunday afternoon.

King died almost instantly of the rifle wound. The bullet entered his head above the right eye. The shooting occurred about 3:45 p.m.

Listed As Suicide

Chief Fry had been called by members of the family while King roved fields near the home of his father-in-law, Glenn Davis, Dillsburg R. 2, with the rifle in his hands.

The officer had gotten within 20 feet of King in a brush-grown field owned by a neighbor of Davis when King swung about, raised the gun and took his own life. No reason was advanced for the act which York County Coroner Lester D. Sell, Hanover, listed as a suicide after an investigation.

Members of his own family were at the Davis home when the shooting occurred. The Kings live several miles away on Dillsburg R. 3.

Rites Wednesday

He was a member of Franklin Reformed church, near Dillsburg. Surviving, in addition to his wife, May Isabel Davis King, are: two sons, Perry Glenn and Stanley Paul King, both at home; his mother, Mrs. Estella King, York Springs R. 1; two brothers, George King, Spring Grove R. 1, and Dale King, York Springs R. 1; and five sisters, Mrs. Lester Wirt, Harrisburg R. 1; Mrs. Lee Nisley, Carlisle R. 1; Ardelle and Janet King and Mrs. Eugene Hayes, all at home.

Private funeral services Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Cocklin Funeral home, Dillsburg, with Rev. A. T. Kaup, his pastor, officiating. Burial in Dillsburg cemetery.

"Censure" Of Sen. McCarthy Recommended By Colleagues

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special Senate investigating committee recommended today that Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy "should be censured" by the Senate.

The six-member committee said McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, had treated the Senate and one of its committees contemptuously. It said further that on another count — his alleged abuse of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, "the senator from Wisconsin, Mr. McCarthy, should be censured."

As for three other broad charges considered in nine days of hearings, the committee said it feels they "do not, under all the evidence, justify a resolution of censure."

Senate Meets Nov. 8

The Senate will convene in special session Nov. 8 to consider the recommendations.

It will decide then whether to vote censure or noncensure.

Adoption of a censure resolution would amount simply to a public rebuke of McCarthy and would not of itself remove any of his senatorial privileges.

The special committee's report ran to 68 printed pages, a total of about 40,000 words. Much of the text was devoted to a summary of the evidence.

A summary of recommendations said:

"For the reasons and on the facts found in this report, the select committee recommends:

"1. That on the charges in the category of 'incidents of contempt of the Senate or a senatorial committee,' the senator from Wisconsin, Mr. McCarthy, should be censured.

"2. That the charges in the category of 'incidents of encouragement' (Continued on Page 10)

6,172 Battlefield Visitors On 'Field

More than 6,000 battlefield visitors were reported over the week end with the peak being reached on Sunday when 3,578 toured the 'field, the National Park office reported today.

On Saturday there were 2,408 visitors in private cars and 186 in five buses making a total of 2,594 of which 450 were from the Army War College at Carlisle.

On Sunday there were 3,472 in private cars and 106 in buses for a total of 3,578. The week end total was 6,172.

LOCAL MAN IS WED SATURDAY IN BROOKLYN

Before an altar decorated with mixed autumn flowers and candelabra Miss Lillian Marie Marchese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Louis Marchese, Brooklyn, N. Y., became the bride of H. Luther Everly, a member of the United States Military Band at West Point, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Everly, 144 E. Middle St., Saturday evening at 5 o'clock in the Holy Ghost Church, Brooklyn. The Rev. Fr. William H. Cassidy officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Morris, organist, played traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Miss Grace DiFiore, who sang Gounod's "Ave Maria."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle gown over satin designed with a chapel train. Her triple-tiered veil was attached to a headpiece of Chantilly lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Brosnan, Brooklyn, the maid of honor, wore a pale blue cocktail-length dress designed with an illusion net jacket over taffeta. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of yellow gladioli.

James Everly, E. Middle St., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. The bride's mother wore a floor-length nylon tulle gown of cotton blue with matching accessories and a corsage of pink orchids. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dusty rose lace and nylon tulle gown over taffeta with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception was held in Imatra Hall, Brooklyn, after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Everly are honeymooning for two weeks in the Poconos. They will live in Highland Falls, N. Y.

The bride is a graduate of St. Brendan's High School, Brooklyn, and has been employed by Manufacturing Chemist, Manhattan, as a stenographer. Her husband, a graduate of the Gettysburg High School, is a cadet at West Point, N. Y.

Invite Churches' Leaders To Rally

A booster rally in preparation for the annual sessions of the Adams County Leadership Training School this fall will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren.

The school's board of directors has specially invited all pastors and church school superintendents to attend.

Courses to be offered this year will be described, faculty members introduced and there will be a period of discussion on suggestions for the leadership training program.

A social hour and refreshments will follow the rally.

CARS COLLIDE WHEN ONE TRIES TO MISS TURTLE

A turtle was partially responsible for a two-car accident on the Biglerville Rd. Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock. It was one of two mishaps Sunday.

Sebastian Robert Hafer, 29, of 25 E. Water St., state police said, was driving south about 2½ miles north of here when he saw a turtle crossing the road.

Hafer swung to the left to avoid running over the creature and then swung back into his regular lane of traffic.

Police said Lloyd E. Kroushour, 74, Gardeners R. 1, was also headed south at the same time, following the Hafer car.

When Kroushour saw Hafer's vehicle slow down and swing to the left, presumably toward a lane leading to a house, he assumed that Hafer was making a left turn into the lane. He continued on in his lane at the same speed.

When Hafer swung back into his own lane, after avoiding the turtle, his car had crashed into the Kroushour vehicle.

Damage was estimated at $30 to Hafer's sedan and $75 to Kroushour's.

Car, Truck Sideswipe

In another accident a car and a tractor-trailer loaded with cattle for the Lancaster market sideswiped two miles west of here on the Lincoln Highway. Police said they could not determine whether the car or the truck was over the center of the highway when the crash occurred at 12:15 o'clock Sunday morning.

Theodore G. Elser, 20, Yardley, Pa., a student at Gettysburg College, was the driver of the auto, which was damaged to the extent of $150. Fred Everett Gardner, 29, Christianburg, Va., was the operator of the east bound tractor-trailer truck, which had $25 damage. Neither the drivers nor the steers were injured.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Rosh Hashana, the Jewish New Year, will begin at sundown today and continue for 10 days. For members of the Jewish faith, it is the beginning of the year 5715 on the calendar, which is supposedly reckoned from the days of Abraham, of the Old Testament, who was the first Hebrew.

The holiday is celebrated by feasting and praying, and by traditional customs. The eating of apples and honey, for example, at a Rosh Hashana dinner symbolizes the hopes for a happy and prosperous new year.

The period of the next three weeks is known as the High Holidays, and is the most holy season of the year for Jewish people. The 10-day Rosh Hashana holiday ends Oct. 6 with the observance of the solemn and mournful Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, at which the people pray for forgiveness of sins. Religious Jews eat no foods or liquids on Yom Kippur.

The third holiday of the period is Sukoth, or Sukkoth, which is the equivalent of the modern Thanksgiving. In Biblical days, the Hebrews lived in little booths in their fields for an eight-day period, celebrating and giving thanks for the bountiful harvest. Sukkoth this year begins on Oct. 11. A fourth holiday, at the end of the period, is Simchas Torah, which celebrates the yearly completion of the reading of the Torah, the ancient Hebrew Bible, a portion of which has been read at the services each Saturday morning.

Dr. Hoover Speaks At York Church

Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, professor emeritus of practical theology at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, was the speaker at Sunday morning services at Union Lutheran Church in York when the 25th anniversary of the church edifice was observed.

At the 8:30 a.m. service he spoke on "The Household of Faith" and at 11 o'clock preached on "The Temple Beautiful."

The Rev. Paul Reaser, formerly of Gettysburg, pastor of the church, presided over the services. Dr. Hoover was the guest leader for a church workers' retreat Sunday afternoon where he delivered two messages.

The York congregation also is observing the 95th anniversary of its founding this year.

Carl Johnson, 11-year old son of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Johnson, East Broadway, broke his left arm while playing football Sunday afternoon.

We will be closed Tuesday, September 28; Wednesday, September 29, and Thursday, October 1, in observance of religious holidays. Morris Gitlin.

58 Americans Among Estimated 1,500 Dead In North Japan's Typhoon; Huge Ferry Capsizes

By JOHN RANDOLPH

TOKYO (AP)—An estimated 1,500 persons perished in a howling typhoon which struck northern Japan last night, including nearly 1,000 who died when a huge sea-going ferry capsized.

Fifty-eight Americans are dead or missing.

Authorities said 590 bodies have been recovered, including those of 14 Americans. Another 943 are missing, among them 44 Americans.

Winds U To 110 Mph.

The great storm, generating winds up to 110 miles an hour, apparently had whirled harmlessly into the Japan Sea when suddenly it curled back and struck the northern island of Hokkaido almost without warning.

The result was Japan's greatest maritime disaster.

Giant waves in Tsugaru Straits sank five big ferries, four of which

A fire virtually wiped out Iwanoh, a city of 23,000 on Hokkaido west coast, and police reported disastrous landslides and floods throughout Hokkaido.

Power Lines Wrecked

Communications and power lines were wrecked. Rail lines and highways were blocked.

The most terrible disaster occurred in Hakodate harbor, where the big ocean ferry Toya Maru, carrying 1,252 passengers and crewmen, smashed into rocks and turned turtle.

Forty-three railroad cars were hurled about inside the hull.

A survivor described the stricken vessel as "a hell on earth."

The first newsman to reach Hakodate harbor used a similar phrase in describing it—"a sea of hell."

Eyewitnesses said the sickle-

Trainer's Condition Is "Unsatisfactory"

The condition of Merrill Allen "Al" Trainer, 20-year-old Gettysburg College sophomore from Lansdowne, was described as "unsatisfactory" by physicians at Harrisburg today.

The youth was removed to the isolation ward of the Harrisburg Hospital Friday evening as his illness was diagnosed as polio on Saturday. At that time his condition was described as "fair" and he was suffering from a partial paralysis of the face.

Today the paralysis was described as "involving" other muscles and the entire right side of the face was suffering from paralysis. Other muscles are also possibly involved, physicians said.

Mrs. William Sutton, Littlestown R. 1, 31-year-old mother of five children, one of them also a patient with polio, was described as "coming along nicely" at the Harrisburg Hospital today. Mrs. Sutton was stricken by polio a week ago.

Guaranteed watch and jewelry repairs. Home of fine diamonds, watches, silverware, etc. Easy terms. Gay Jewellers, 19 Carlisle Street, Gettysburg.

Cars Are Looted During Grid Game

Leo Steinhour, 1 Gettys St., reported to borough police the theft of two door handle guards and a chrome exhaust pipe extension from his car. Clarence Lemaster, 100 Buford Ave., is missing the mirror and sun visor attachments to his car, and Glenn Minter, 155 E. Middle St., reported that his son, Norrie, had four chrome hubcaps taken from his car.

All thefts are said to have taken place during the Gettysburg-Carlisle football game here Friday night.

PRISONER, 34, DIES IN JAIL AT CHAMBERSBURG

Funeral services for Clarence Morrison Perry, 34, Fayetteville R. 2, were held this afternoon from the Barbour Funeral Home, Chambersburg, with the Rev. Alfred Jones and Rev. Arthur P. Pilgrim officiating. Interment was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Chambersburg.

Perry, a brother of Glenn C. Perry, 30, who was asphyxiated by ammonia fumes September 7 while employed at the Knouse Foods Co-operative plant at Peach Glen, died suddenly Friday evening while a prisoner at the Franklin County jail.

Dr. S. D. Shull, Franklin county coroner, empaneled a jury at 11 o'clock this morning for an inquest later to determine the cause of Perry's death. An autopsy was performed over the weekend.

Arrested September 7

Perry had been arrested September 7 on a disorderly conduct charge. He paid a fine and costs at a hearing later, but Franklin County parole and probation officers decided to hold him in jail for investigation as a possible parole violator.

Friday evening at 8:20 o'clock Perry, while playing cards with other prisoners in the cell block of the jail, collapsed. Dr. Benjamin H. Long, called by attendants, upon his arrival pronounced Perry as dead. Fellow prisoners said the Fayetteville R. 2 man had not complained of feeling ill.

A native of Shippensburg, Perry was a son of Harvey J. and Eva Kohler Perry, Fayetteville R. 2. Surviving in addition to his parents are five brothers and a sister, Chester J. and Harvey J. Perry Jr., both of Oak Hill, W. Va.; Wayne L., Max LeRoy, Richard I. and Helen Perry, all of Fayetteville R. 2.

Seminary Graduate Installed Sunday

Rev. Charles F. Trunk Jr., former pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Harrisburg, Pa., was installed Sunday evening as pastor of Evangelical Lutheran Church, Frederick. The Rev. Dr. J. Frank Fife, president of the Maryland Synod, conducted the installation service and delivered the charge to the congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Trunk served pastorates at Phoenixville and Lititz, before going to the Harrisburg church in 1949 and was president of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference for two years. A graduate of Gettysburg College and the Lutheran Seminary, he is 39 and is the father of three children.

Vandals "Kill" Eisenhower Tree Planted By Tank Corps To Mark Camp Headquarters

A new wave of vandalism caused considerable damage in the Gettysburg National Military Park and as a result the 22-foot Northern Pine tree planted here last month during the reunion of the World War Tank Corps Association may die.

Dr. J. Walter Coleman, National Park superintendent, said this morning that someone chopped nearly half through the five-inch trunk of the tree planted to mark the site of Eisenhower's headquarters when he commanded Camp Colt here during World War I.

The tree, which was planted along the Emmitsburg Rd., near the Bloody Angle, had been receiving special care from park workmen to make sure that it got a good start this fall.

"We'll do everything we can to save it but it's very unlikely that it can survive this damage," he said.

Other Field Damage

Other weekend damage on the field included smashed wooden signs, damaged to one metal marker and a twisted traffic stop sign. Most of the damage is known to have been inflicted Friday night and the balance Saturday or Sunday.

Three wooden signs were cut up as though a hatchet had been used on them. One pointed to the New Jersey monument, one to the North Carolina monument and the other marked Reynolds Ave. at its intersection with Meredith Ave.

The large metal sign at the Virginia Memorial was bent as though a heavy instrument had been used on it and the stop sign on Buford Ave. at the Mummusburg Rd. was twisted out of position.

Last weekend a bronze gun was taken from the hands of a granite cavalrman along Hancock Ave. near the Pennsylvania Monument. It has not been recovered. The monument that was mutilated was that honoring the 8th Pennsylvania Cavalry.

Damaging or removing government property in the park is punishable by heavy penalties and every effort is being made to apprehend the vandals, Dr. Coleman said. Fines and imprisonment are provided.

1ST LECTURER AT SEMINARY ON TUESDAY

Rev. Dr. Heinrich Meyer, an authority on missions, will give the first in the series of student-faculty lectures for the current year at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Seminary officials said the public is invited to attend the lectures to be given in the Church of the Abiding Presence on the Seminary Campus.

Dr. Meyer served for 27 years as a missionary of the Schleswig-Holstein Evangelical Mission (Brek-lum Mission) in the Karaput District of Orissa, India. From 1904 to 1951 he was president of the Jeypore Evangelical Lutheran Church. He has been instrumental in promoting a closer unity within the Federation of Evangelical Lutheran churches in India and served as chairman of the committee which worked out the Doctrinal Statement presenting the confessional basis for a united Evangelical Lutheran Church in India.

DEANERY PLANS SUNDAY SERVICE

Letter to the Editor

Sept. 25, 1954
Mr. Paul L. Roy, Editor,
The Gettysburg Times,
Gettysburg, Pa.
Dear Mr. Roy:

In order to get before the public the first suggestion for a name for the new Gettysburg elementary school building, and one that we hope will receive favorable consideration from the Board of School directors, we would appreciate it if you would publish in The Gettysburg Times the following letter which the Gettysburg Branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association addressed to Dr. R. D. Wickerham, board president, some time ago:

May 18, 1954

"Dr. Wickerham:
"At a recent meeting of the faculty of the Gettysburg Schools, an idea originated which the teachers would like to share with you and the members of the Joint School Board. The idea concerns a name for the new elementary school.

"If the School Board is thinking of naming the new elementary school, and in view of the untiring labor years of devoted service and unselfish efforts of our Superintendent, for the cause of education, the teachers submit the name of Lloyd C. Keefe for your consideration.

Very sincerely yours,

Gettysburg Branch of P.S.E.A."

LEADER SAYS DEMOCRATS TOP "VOTE GETTING"

HARRISBURG (AP)—State Sen. George M. Leader, Democratic candidate for governor, believes Pennsylvania Democrats are running ahead of the Republicans in the matter of vote getting.

Speaking here after a week of touring through normally Republican dominated areas, Leader declared, "We caught up with the Republicans last week and have now pulled ahead of them."

He said he has noted "unrest and dissatisfaction" in some traditionally strong GOP areas.

"The farm vote is no longer tucked away safely in the hip pocket of the Republican bossism . . . The farmer knows his hope for the future is not tied in with Republican insincerity," he said.

Leader added that he saw "a revitalized interest in the Democratic party." He said, "It's a selling job all the way but we are getting results. People are showing more interest in our party."

He attributed this interest to what he called the unpopularity of the Republican state administration and to the "pinch people are beginning to feel in their pocket-books."

Meanwhile in a weekend speech at Stroudsburg, Richardson Dilworth, 1950 Democratic candidate for governor, said he thought it was "about time to turn off the hot air the Republican candidate for governor has been using in place of

THE Camera COLUMN

By Dave Garfinkle

Cats, dogs and cameras have one thing in common . . . you find them just about everywhere. And each year amateur photographers use millions of rolls of film in photographing these household pets. Every camera magazine, every photo contest, includes some of these pet pictures . . . and every photographer has a collection of disappointments in the pet category.

One thing you'll notice about most good pet snapshots . . . they're close-ups. They give you the sharp detail that is needed to capture that pet's personality. And the ordinary, disappointing pictures just show Rover or Old Tom as a speck on the landscape. The answer is pretty obvious: you'll get the kind of pet pictures you'll want to keep if you slip a close-up lens over your camera's regular lens.

With a close-up lens you can move in to about three feet from your pet. These lenses cost little, and they're available for most cameras. And they're good for a lot more than interesting animal shots. In the trade they are called portrait lenses, and they're specifically intended to make close-ups of people with the head and shoulders filling the negative area. If you'll think about it a minute, you can point out dozens of your own pictures that would have been a lot more satisfying if you could have filled the print with close-up detail.

You'll find these lenses in our complete stock of photographic accessories. Stop in and let us show you how they work. DAVE'S PHOTO SUPPLY, 52 Chambersburg St., Gettysburg. Phone 83-W.

Death of Judge Irvine: We learn that Judge Irvine, formerly of Gettysburg, and Presiding Judge of this District for a short time, died at Harrisburg on Thursday.

Married: On the 26th inst., by the Rev. J. H. C. Dosh, Mr. William E. Maurey to Miss Sarah J. Clippinger—both of Gettysburg. On Tuesday, by Rev. D. P. Rosenmiller, Mr. William H. Stouffer, to Miss Eleanor T. Freyberg—both of this place.

TO THE FRIENDS OF PROHIBITION IN ADAMS COUNTY: Fellow Citizens—The undersigned, in behalf of a Committee appointed at a meeting of the friends of Prohibition in Gettysburg, on the 23d inst., beg leave to address you a few words upon the important duty devolving upon the friends of Humanity at the approaching election. It may not be unknown to you that the Legislature at its last session, passed an act providing for an expression of the will of the voters in the Commonwealth in reference to the passage of a Prohibition Liquor Law. In accordance with this act, therefore, it will be expected of each voter at the coming election to deposit a ballot either for or against Prohibition. . . . To the polls then, freemen of Adams county, on the 10th of October, and vote for Prohibition! Tickets will be furnished at all the election polls. Examine your tickets carefully, and see that the words—"FOR A PROHIBITORY LIQUOR LAW," are there. Come to the rescue and unborn millions will rise up and call you blessed. Robert Johnston, T. T. ## Today's Talk

JOHN MUIR,
LOVER OF THE WILD

For a long time I have been interested in the work and life of John Muir, the man who did so much to spare our great forests and interest the masses in the glory and beauty of forest, mountain, stream, and all expanse of nature—everywhere.

Most of Muir's life, however, was spent in California, though he was born in Scotland and lived as a boy in Wisconsin. A most interesting life of Muir was published in 1945 by the late Linnie Marsh Wolfe, which was a Pulitzer selection, but a new book has just come to my attention, which I have read with the greatest of interest. It is called: "The Wilderness World of John Muir," edited by Edwin Way Teale.

This new book is a gold mine of beauty for the lover of nature, and for the lover of all that John Muir held so dear in life. Nothing mattered to him but to be close to the earth, birds, animals, and to keep delving into the secrets of the earth. He once said that as a boy in Scotland he was "fond of everything that was wild, and all my life I've been growing fonder and fonder of wild places and wild creatures."

This book is a most carefully arranged digest of the many books and writings of Muir, selected by Mr. Teale, with editorial comments. The book is beautifully illustrated by Henry B. Kane. Some of the finest writing on nature in all literature is to be found in this book. Well could John Muir comment: "A man in his books may well be said to walk the earth long after he is gone."

Muir had an inventive mind and created many things that might have brought wealth to him but he loved nature more. E. H. Harriman had an exhibition in Alaska in 1899 and someone mentioned the great wealth of its sponsor. Said Muir: "Why, I am richer than Harriman. I have all the money I want and he hasn't."

This book in your library will be turned to time and time again. To read it is like walking around in Paradise with John Muir as a guide!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "You'll Always Need a Friend!"

Just Folks

WEDDING
I'm invited to her wedding and I'll shed a tear or two
When the vows are being spoken,
because that I always do.
When the ritual is ended and they're standing side by side,
In the gay reception line up I shall wait to kiss the bride.

I'll not be the fancy dresser which the women folks admire.
I am ill-at-ease and awkward rigged in swallow tail attire.
I owned a shiny silk once in Nineteen Thirty Six,
But I gave it to a youngster who could use it doing tricks.

I shall shower rice upon them, for that's what they did to me,
Though I never learned the reason
just why that should have to be.
I'll behave the way I ought to and through strange the customs are
I may even tie a tin can to the bumper of their car.

I am going to the wedding. From the feast I plan to take,
For sleeping on and dreaming on, the usual piece of cake.
To the bride and groom departing I shall shout a loud: "Good bye!"
But no one there will wish them more of happiness than I.

5 SCHOOLBOY GRID CHAMPS ARE DEFEATED

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (P)—Five of the eight champions of Pennsylvania's major schoolboy football conferences have failed to survive the first three weeks of the 1954 season with a clean slate.

Corry of Section II, Schuylkill Haven of the East Penn and Har-Brack of the WPIAL are the only title winning clubs to win all their early season starts and appear prepared to fight off all challengers.

Corry grabbed No. 3 of the year and 12 in two years by beating Millcreek over the weekend. Schuylkill Haven, even without its star Don Hafer, reached the 30 point mark for the third straight game while shutting out Lansford, and Har-Brack opened WPIAL Class AA competition by drubbing Farrell, 33-2.

Two of last year's major league leaders fell for the first time. York of the Central Penn was stopped 14-7 by Milton Hershey in a non-league contest to even the Bearcats' season mark at 1-1. And Adams, ruler of the Western Conference, largest in the state, found an unbeaten Class B team too tough and went down 21-12 before South Fork. Adams had won 11 games in a row including two this year.

Donora Bows 3rd Time

Donora, in the process of a complete rebuilding of the team that tied Har-Brack for the WPIAL crown, absorbed its third straight setback without a win, this time at the hands of Charleroi.

The co-champs of the South Penn, Hershey and Chambersburg, had slightly better luck over the weekend after two exhibition losses apiece. Hershey licked Palmyra but Chambersburg lost again, to Harrisburg William Penn.

Corry and Meadville, both 1-0, are the only Section II members without a loss or defeat. This conference usually narrows down to a battle between these two clubs—they are the only champions since the league was organized in 1951.

Two Win Three

Schuylkill Haven and West Scranton in the Northern Division have the best records in the East Penn—each with three conference wins. However, the first ratings of the season find Old Forge with one league win leading the Northern Division and Mount Carmel (2-0 in the league), West Hazleton (3-0) and Shamokin (1-0) tied for the Southern Division lead.

The first weekly ratings of the Western Conference have Windber and DuBois deadlocked at the top although four teams have better win-loss marks. Conemaugh Twp., Bellwood Antis, Ebensburg and Hollidaysburg all have won three times in league games. Windber has a 2-0 log and DuBois has beaten only Clearfield in the league.

Close to a third of the starting field was left by the wayside in 13 WPIAL Class AA contests. Ten clubs were eliminated by their first loss or tie, leaving 15 from the original 36 still in the running.

Ousted were Farrell, Rochester, McKeesport, Redstone, Monessen, Munhall, Scott, Wilkinsburg, New Kensington and Latrobe. Leading the way in won and lost records are Greensburg and Penn, each with three double A victories. Johnstown and Washington have two each.

Marty Furgol Wins With 11 Under Par

WASHINGTON (P)—Marty Furgol, the burly better from Lemont, Ill., was high among the year's money winners today after capturing the $40,000 "world series of golf" tournament with a 273, 11 under par.

In a stirring competition that carried to the final hole of Congressional Country Club's 6,814-yard course, Furgol whipped Bo Winger yesterday by a single stroke to win $7,500. This boosted his 1954 earnings to $19,909.

as follows:
Purse $150—2.45 class—$90, $45 and $15.
M. Sultzback b.m. Maude ..... 1 1 1
M. Moriarty, b.m. Emma ..... 2 2 2
O. A. Myers, Dick ..... 3 3 3
Time—2.43, 2.42½, 2.44½. . . .

The receipts for admission were $838, against $1,016 last year. Those figures prove conclusively that the Society must have been largely cheated at previous exhibitions, and that some change in the ticket system was necessary as a self-protection. The attendance last year was much larger than the difference in receipts would indicate.

Pen-Mar Baseball League

A three-run rally in the last of the seventh inning gave Cashtown a 5-4 victory over Blue Ridge Summit Sunday afternoon to make it two straight in the semi-final playoffs.

As a result of the triumph Cashtown enters the title series and next Sunday plays at Fairfield at 1:45 p.m. in another best-of-three series to determine the playoff champion. Fairfield gained the final series by eliminating Emmitsburg with two straight wins previously.

Blue Ridge tabbed a run in the first inning on a walk to Whitney, double by Calmer, and sacrifice fly by R. Harbaugh. Cashtown knotted the count in the third on R. Spence's single, a wild pitch, walk to G. Herring and another wild pitch.

In the seventh inning Blue Ridge took a 4-2 lead with a pair of tallies but Cashtown bounced back with three in the last half to cop the verdict. R. Spence and G. Herring singled and I. Herring walked. A sacrifice fly by Singley produced a run. Singley, pinch-hitting for L. Wetzel, fanned but D. Bucher drilled a single to center scoring the tying and winning runs.

Herb Thomas Wins 250 Mile Car Race

LANGHORNE, Pa. (P)—Herb Thomas of Sanford, N.C., currently leading the nation's stock car drivers, looked today for new fields to conquer after adding the 250-mile Grand National Championship title and record to his log of victories.

Thomas sped by the flag ahead of 64 other cars at Langhorne Speedway yesterday in 3 hours, 30 minutes, 42.89 seconds. The time erased the mark for the event set by last year's Grand National champion, Dick Rathman, Daytona Beach, Fla. Rathman's winning time was 3:43:43.52.

In one of the USGA Opens held in the 1920's, golf champion Jock Hutchinson really got into the rough. His caddy laid down his bag and that was lost, too, along with the ball.

LIONS, MENTOR JUBILANT OVER BIG TEN UPSET

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (P)—"The greatest win in my college career!" was the way Penn State Coach Rip Engle described his club's season's opening 14-12 victory over Illinois, a two-touchdown favorite.

"I don't remember having a team on which the 11 boys put out like this one did Saturday," said the veteran coach now in his fifth year at the helm of the Nittany Lions.

But it was right back to the business at hand—winning the next one. Engle called his staff in yesterday afternoon for their usual Sunday meeting to receive scouting reports on next Saturday's opponent, Syracuse.

Only hours before a crowd estimated at 4,000 including university president Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower roared its welcome on the team's return from Champaign.

Illini Was Favored

The Penn State triumph was one of the few for the East in the weekend's intersectional gridiron contests and indicated the pre-season ratings that ranked letterman-laden State among the East's best weren't far from wrong. And the victory came over an eleven rated sixth in the nation in the Associated Press pre-season poll and a favorite to win the Big 10.

In addition the two-point decision—recorded on the kicking toe of injured co-captain Jim Garrity of Monaca, Pa.—also set these marks: It was the first triumph for Penn State over a Western Conference team in 32 years (the last was in 1912 when the unbeaten Lions licked Ohio State).

Maintains Record

It maintained State's record of never losing two consecutive season openers.

It was the first opening loss for Illinois in more than a decade.

It was the only win recorded by a Pennsylvania college team against an out-of-state opponent over the weekend.

Engle expressed disappointment over one phase of the victory—State's passing game. Penn State tried only 13 passes, completed three and had three interceptions. That was a long way from the average of the last two Penn State clubs that won 13, lost five and tied one mainly on the passing arm of Tony Rados.

Vacancy Is Filled

The quarterback vacancy left by Rados' graduation "seemed to answer itself," Engle said, considering the performance of senior Don Bailey. Bailey ran 50 yards to set up the second touchdown after passing 24 yards to Jesse Arnette for the first.

The second weak spot in the Penn State lineup, left guard, is still a question mark. Chuck Sowers, Pete Petroff and Sam Valentine alternated in helping the rest of the line bottle up the Illinois backfield in general and J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates in particular.

To top the day Lenny Moore, Reading halfback, outran Caroline in total yardage 126 to 115 and in average per try 7.3 to 6.4.

Penn Crushed By Duke

In Philadelphia, Penn was crushed by the Blue Devils of Duke, 52-0; Villanova traveled to Syracuse and

Littlestown In 18-12 Win Over Susquehannock; Game Is Continued From Friday

In perhaps the longest football game ever played anywhere, Littlestown High School capped its first victory of the season by defeating Susquehannock 18-12 in a Laurel Conference game on the Littlestown gridiron Saturday afternoon.

The game, which was begun Friday evening, was stopped after nine minutes of play in the first period due to a power failure in the lighting system on Memorial Field. It was previously announced the game should be played from the beginning by James Neely, Lancaster, chairman of District 3. However, Neely reversed his decision Saturday morning and ordered the game to be continued from the point it was halted.

In nine minutes of play Friday evening, the Warriors had moved to the Littlestown 1½-yard line. The lost 28-6 after drawing first blood and Pitt lost to Southern California 27-7 on the West Coast.

In other games Shippensburg State Teachers started after its third consecutive undefeated season with a 23-0 win over outclassed Lock Haven. It was the Raiders 17th straight victory.

At Scranton, Pat Ferraro of Dummore, a Scranton suburb, came down from New York with Hofstra and led the visitors to a 13-6 win over University of Scranton.

In another interstate contest, West Chester State Teachers, unbeaten by college competition last year, was thoroughly trounced by the University of Delaware, 40-6.

Bisons Down Mules

The other games, briefly: Bucknell overpowered Muhlenberg in the Rotary Bowl game at Hershey, 33-13; Washington and Jefferson tied Denison, 13-13, after three scoreless quarters; Wooster blanked Allegheny 31-0; Western Maryland held Dickinson scoreless 25-0; Lafayette defeated Albright 26-0.

The clock ran out for Lehigh on their opponents' 8 and the Engineers lost to Virginia 27-21; Waynesburg and Geneva fought to a scoreless tie; Indiana Teachers beat Grove City 26-0; Clarion, unbeaten in 1953, opened with a 46-19 triumph over Edinboro; Carnegie Tech edged Westminster 6-0; and Thiel downed St. Vincent 19-6.

march began on the Littlestown 44 following a punt by Leonard Potter. On the first play Saturday afternoon, Ronald Good, on an end run, raced over for the touchdown. Rodnew Panian, plunging for the extra point, was stopped by the host of Thunderbolt players.

Bolts Score On Pass

Coach Wilbur Gobrecht's Bolts roared right back with less than three minutes remaining in the quarter with Donald Kump, halfback, returning the kickoff on a brilliant run from the Littlestown 10 to the Susquehannock 25-yard line. The Bolts gained nine yards on the ground and on fourth down elected to pass. Don Kump's throw to Fred Busbey tied the score 6-6. Kump's plunge for the extra point was stopped.

During the scoreless second quarter Susquehannock dominated play, earning four first downs to Littlestown's two. At half-time Susquehannock had gained 56 yards on the ground and completed two passes out of three. Littlestown had gained 46 yards while losing four on the ground and completed two out of five passes.

The Bolts were in scoring position early in the third period, after a fumble by Jack Hendrick on the Littlestown end, Fred Busbey. But a fumble by fullback, Leonard Potter, on the Susquehannock 10 was picked up by Theodore Krebs. Unable to move, the Warriors punted on fourth down. On a play starting on the 45, Leonard Potter and Donald Kump gained 21 yards for L. H. S. After two passes failed, Donald Kump ran 24 yards to score the Bolts' second touchdown. George Snyder's kick for the extra point was blocked.

Zulick Scores

A fumble on the first play in the fourth quarter by Larry Krebs of Susquehannock was recovered by David Bucher. A pass by Donald Kump meant for Fred Busbey, was intercepted by Ronald Good on the Susquehannock 22. On the following play, a fumble by Wolf of Susquehannock was recovered by the Bolts. Jim Zulick raced 20 yards to the Susquehannock 2. Zulick, again carrying, went over for the TD.

Snyder's kick was again blocked.

Mid-way through the last period, a 32-yard pass from Jack Hendrick to Larry Krebs, and other pass from Hendrick to Gantz for six yards, moved the Warriors to the Littlestown 5. Hendrick, on the next play, rushed over for the touchdown. A pass from Hendrick to Gantz for the extra point was incomplete.

No Penalties Called

The game was unique in that not one penalty was called on either team.

The Thunderbolts, who are fielding their best team in years, have now tied one game, 6-6 (West York), and have one win in league competition.

Next week the Bolts are hosts to York Catholic High School in a non-league contest.

Batting Champs Of Both Leagues In Series First Time Since '31; Willie Mays, Bobby Avila Win

By JACK HAND
AP Sports Writer

For the first time since 1931, the two league batting champions will meet in the world series with Willie Mays .345 of the New York Giants and Bobby Avila .341 of the Cleveland Indians topping the hit parade.

Mays beat out teammate Don Mueller and Brooklyn's Duke Snider with a three-hit outburst on the final day of the season. Willie ripped into Philadelphia pitching yesterday for a triple, double and single and a final .345 average. Mueller wound up at .342 and Snider at .341.

Avila's triumph in the American league is bound to stir up some off-season talk. Ted Williams actually had a higher average, .345, but he didn't have the required 400 official at bats. If the statisticians gave him 14 hitless trips to boost his 386 at bat total to 400 he would have finished at .333.

Boston as Fourth
Since Cleveland clinched the American league pennant a week ago Saturday and New York eliminated Brooklyn a week ago, the chief interest in Sunday's final game was a scrap for fourth place—and a chunk of World Series cash-in each league.

The Boston Red Sox, helped by Williams' 29th homer in a five-run seventh, sewed up fourth in the American league by bopping Washington 11-2. Detroit, with a chance at fourth place if Boston had lost, topped Cleveland 8-7 in 13 innings on Fred Hatfield's two-run homer off Ray Narleski.

Philadelphia wound up fourth in the National despite a defeat by the New York Giants, 3-2 in 11 innings. Cincinnati, needing a victory to tie the Phils, lost to Chicago, 5-2.

Spooner Fans 12
Karl Spooner, Brooklyn's brilliant rookie southpaw, proved his 15-strikeout job against the Giants Wednesday was no flash in the pan. The 23-year-old fourth rounder fanned 12 Pittsburgh batters for a new National league record of 27 in his first two starts. Gil Hodges' 42nd homer gave Brooklyn a 1-0 edge.

Wally Moon's 400-foot home run gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 2-0 victory over Milwaukee in 11 innings.

Casey Stengel popped up with his new "power" infield—Yogi Berra at third, Mickey Mantle at short and Bill Skowron at second—only to see the Philadelphia A's knock off his New York Yankees 8-6.

Warm-up for Twirlers
The final games of the two series teams didn't prove much, except that both are ready.

The Indians gave Larry Doby the day off but pitched Mike Garcia 12 innings. Manager Al Lopez apparently believes in giving his pitchers a thorough warm-up. Bob Lemon, expected to face Sal Maglie in the opener Wednesday, went nine Friday and Early Wynn pitched a complete game Saturday.

Johnny Antonelli, the Giants' top winning pitcher, worked only the first two innings of the finale in Philadelphia. Ruben Gomez and Maglie had brief tune-ups Saturday night.

Senators To Name New Manager Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Senators arranged to make an announcement today about next year's manager—and all signs were that it would be the signing of Chuck Dressen, former Brooklyn pilot.

Bucky Harris, the Nats' manager for five years, was let out Friday in what the Washington baseball club called a resignation and Harris implied was a firing. The Nats wound up in sixth place in the American League.

Calvin Griffith, vice president of the club, announced a news conference in New York City late today.

Al Tasnadi Wins On Dover Speedway

DOVER, N. J. (AP)—Al Tasnadi of Lambertville copped the Dover Speedway season championship last night with his fourth straight feature stock car victory.

Fred Fehr of Easton, Pa., was second for the season and took second in yesterday's race.

Harold Brokhoff of Pottsville, Pa., was third in the final race, but Ken Wismer of Easton, finished third in the season standings.

When Bud Hall, Midland, Tex., outfielder hit his 21st home run this season he drove in three runs. Midland fans passed the hat and Hall got $93.75.

MICHIGAN STATE, TEXAS, ILLINI AMONG LOSERS; ALL IRISH FOES

By The Associated Press

Notre Dame, apparently headed for new glories under young Terry Brennan, may just stand aside and watch other top contenders for national football honors kill off themselves.

With the season only two weeks old, four teams picked to challenge the Irish for the coveted No. 1 role—Texas, Illinois, Michigan State and Georgia Tech—already have been beaten.

Another, Oklahoma, has had a tight squeeze, having to score twice in the fading minutes to beat Texas Christian 21-16, and the Sooners may not be as fortunate Oct. 9 against Texas at Dallas.

Maryland Or UCLA
At least one other recognized power, and possibly more, will fall this weekend when action increases with an imposing intersection schedule featuring a clash of two Bowl giants—Maryland and UCLA.

Maryland, last year's mythical national champion, and UCLA rated the best on the Pacific Coast, tangle Friday night at Los Angeles in a game which is bound to throw new light on the national picture.

Wisconsin is at Michigan State, Tennessee at Duke and Mississippi at Villanova in other games involving teams which have caught early fancy of those looking for a bandwagon.

Irish A Solid Bet
Notre Dame, meanwhile, appears a solid bet to survive its own rugged schedule and go through to the honors for which the team was picked in the pre-season Associated Press poll.

For those who might have been skeptical that the 26-year-old Brennan could step into the shoes of Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy, the Fighting Irish had the answer Saturday in a 21-0 triumph over a big strong Texas team which had been called the best from the Southwest in years.

The Irish entertain an old state rival, Purdue, this week and are expected to duplicate approximately last year's 37-7 score. Texas was good enough to be picked No. 4 in the pre-season AP poll behind the Irish, Oklahoma and Maryland. Oklahoma is idle this week.

Illinois Stunned
Illinois, the No. 5 team, was stunned by Penn State, 14-12. Michigan State, No. 6 and 1954 Rose Bowl champions, fell before Iowa, 14-10. Georgia Tech, the class of Dixie and rated No. 7 before the season began lost to aroused Florida, 13-12.

Tech was rated fifth in the more recent poll based on the first week's games. Illinois was No. 6 and Michigan State No. 7 in this lineup, which was headed by Oklahoma.

Duke Looks Good
Another major upset saw Army, figured to cop Eastern honors this year, fall before an under-rated South Carolina team 34-20. Navy showed unexpected strength in whipping William & Mary 27-0.

Duke emerged as possibly the South's best bet for the national crown by crushing Pennsylvania, 52-0. The Blue Devils gave a stern test this week in Tennessee, 19-7 winner over Mississippi State.

UCLA lived up to advance notices by thrashing Kansas, 32-7, but the Pacific Coast got a mild surprise when Stanford downed Oregon, a team with Rose Bowl aspirations, 18-13.

Elsewhere, the opening day results produced no eyebrow lifting. The Lions clubbed the Chicago Bears 48-23; San Francisco whipped Washington 41-7; Los Angeles slaughtered Baltimore 48-0 and Pittsburgh edged Green Bay 21-20.

Pittsburgh was behind the Packers until five minutes before the end when Jimmy Flaks threw his third scoring pass to tie it and Paul Held kicked the point that provided the winning margin.

Canners' Fumbles Costly As Camp Hill Takes 27-7 Decision Saturday Night

Biglerville High School inaugurated its football campaign by dropping a 27-7 decision to Camp Hill Saturday evening at Biglerville before approximately 2,500 fans.

Camp Hill scored in the first period by driving 47 yards, the payoff coming on a pass, Garino to Musser, from five yards out. Miller added the point on a placement.

In the second quarter the Lions hiked their lead to 13-0 via a blocked punt which rolled into the Biglerville end zone where Stephenson fell on the ball. Miller's boot for the point was wide.

Coach Bill Coradetti's Canners scored on the next play as Bryant Roe thrilled the big crowd with a TD-run on the kickoff.

Roe Races 82 Yds.
Roe grabbed the leather on his 18 and raced right up the middle of the field behind some fine blocking and streaked 82 yards to the goal line. Sheaffer booted the point.

There was no scoring in the third period but Camp Hill came up with a pair of tallies in the final quarter by capitalizing on more Canner fumbles.

Garno plunged over from the 2-yard line on a quarterback sneak and Miller added the point on a kick.

The final tally came when Miller scooped up a Biglerville fumble on the Canners' 32 and raced over. Again he converted.

Biglerville was plagued by fumbles and miscues throughout the evening. Eight of 10 Canner fumbles were recovered by Camp Hill. The Lions rolled up 14 first downs to two for Biglerville.

Yielded Ball 12 Times
Of the 14 times Biglerville held possession of the ball, only twice were they able to hold it for the four downs, fumbles or bad passes from center giving the Lions possession.

Jim Constable, freshman back, turned in a fine performance for the losers. He intercepted three passes and also pounced on a fumble.

Biglerville faces another tough assignment next Saturday evening when it clashes with Bud Ecker's powerful Bolling Springs eleven at Bolling Springs.

The lineup:

Camp Hill
Ends—Stoner, Musser, Cleveland, Gabel, Reed.

LOCAL HORSE WINS 8 PLACES
Horses owned by Roy E. Coldsmith, local roofer, won eight placings in two horse shows over the weekend.

Saturday at Walkersville, "Doughboy's Personality" won first place in the walking horse event and then took second place in the championship stake. Clifford Wolford, Sunbury, its trainer, rode the horse in the events.

"Dolly," driven by Coldsmith, placed third in the driving horse class. "Bobby," ridden by Donald Goldsmith, won fourth place in the pony class.

At Emmitsburg Sunday, "Dolly" came in second in the roadster class, and then won the reserve championship honors in the roadster stake class, with Coldsmith driving both times. "Doughboy's Personality," ridden by Wolford, took third place in the champion stake class. "Bobby," ridden by Donald Goldsmith, was second in the local pony class and "Sugarfoot," ridden by Roy Coldsmith Jr., was fourth in that class.

A number of other local residents were winners in the Emmitsburg show.

Tickets for reserved seats for the Gettysburg-Hanover football game on Friday evening have been received here and are now on sale at the Gettysburg High School office it was revealed today by George Forney, athletic director.

A block of 600 choice seats located between the 35-yard lines in the Gettysburg side of the field are on sale at $1.

Five hundred student tickets at 35c each are also available at the school office.

TED WILLIAMS THROUGH WITH PRO BASEBALL

By BOB HOOBING

BOSTON (AP)—It's the same as I said last spring, only more so—I'm through.

Thus Ted Williams, one of the greatest hitters in baseball history, apparently wrote finis to his playing career in a clubhouse statement yesterday after hitting his 29th home run of the year in Boston's 11-2 triumph over Washington.

To the writers crowding around his locker as he hung up old No. 9, ostensibly for the last time, and to those teammates nearby, Williams tried to dispel all doubts.

Long Time Until Spring
"You think I'm kidding, but I'm not. I've never wavered from my original announcement."

But General Manager Joe Cronin's reaction expressed a common sentiment: "It's a long time between now and spring training."

Field Manager Lou Boudreau added "I hope it isn't true."

Among Greats At Bat
Williams, at 36, almost won the American League batting championship despite a broken collarbone which kept him sidelined until May 15, a virus attack in June and a rash of 136 walks handed him in his 117 of a possible 156 games.

Ted hit 345 on the basis of his 386 at bats. To qualify for the American League crown a batter must have 400 official trips. Adding the 14 at bats he didn't have he finished with 3325 compared to 341 for Cleveland's Bob Avila.

Always quietly charitable, sometimes openly hostile, Williams holds the fourth best lifetime batting average (.348) and fifth highest home run production (368) in major league history. He recently passed Joe DiMaggio's 361 mark in homers. Only Ty Cobb (.367), Rogers Hornsby (.358) and Shoeless Joe Jackson (.356) top his amazing batting performances.

Delone Defeated 25-7 By Unbeaten Scotland Team; Squires Tally On Aerial

The Delone Catholic High gridders lost their third straight game of the season as the hard hitting and fast moving Scotland Cadets romped to a 25-7 win on the winners' field Saturday afternoon. The win marked Scotland's fourth victory against no defeats.

After the Squires tallied the first touchdown of the game in the second period, the Cadets, sparked by their speedy halfback Lloyd Burns, came back and scored a quick pair of six-pointers to take 12-7 half time lead. Scotland clinched the game by pushing a TD across in each of the last two periods.

Both teams put up a strong defensive battle during the first stanza. Delone was able to get as close as the Cadets' 15 yard line. On the other hand the Squires were able to hold Scotland from passing the Red and Blue's 32 yard line.

Play Covers 58 Yards
In the second quarter the ball exchanged hands several times before the Squires were able to take command on their own 50 yard line. Line backs by Redding and Greenholt and an off-sides penalty against Delone placed the ball on the 42 yard line. Funk, substituting for Greenholt, on the first play whipped a pass to Bevenour for a play that carried the ball 58 yards to pay-dirt. Buddy Redding converted for the extra point.

Delone once again took possession of the ball after four unsuccessful Cadet downs. Redding punted but the wind carried it behind him to the Delone 20 where Scotland took over. On the first play from scrimmage Burns skirted end for the six points. His conversion try was blocked. Four plays later Delone was again freed to kick. Redding got off a 40 yard punt but Burns grabbed it and raced down the side lines for 68 yards and a touchdown. Again his attempt for the extra point was blocked.

Burns Again
Coach Bonelli's Squires were plagued with injuries during the week and he was forced to change his line up. Phil Kenworthy, recovering from a broken nose, replaced Neiderer at defensive line backer and Rich Hemler replaced Washington. With these new starters the Squires held on until the end of the third period when Scotland came up with another tally. This time Burns was on the other end of the scoring as he tossed a short pass to McClellan who covered 26 yards to cross the goal line.

As the fourth quarter got underway the Squires were forced to punt. Redding sent a 30 yard punt down field which was taken by Burns who streaked 42 yards down the center of the field for the final TD. This time a plunge by Allen for the extra point was good, and the final score stood 25-7.

Cubage, House: ..... 18,950 ft.

"The Bell" can be constructed either with or without the breezeway and attached garage; in either case it will make a very attractive appearing home. Measurements of the house proper are 30'x30'; for this a 55 foot lot will suffice. However, if a garage is to be added later, a wider lot will be required.

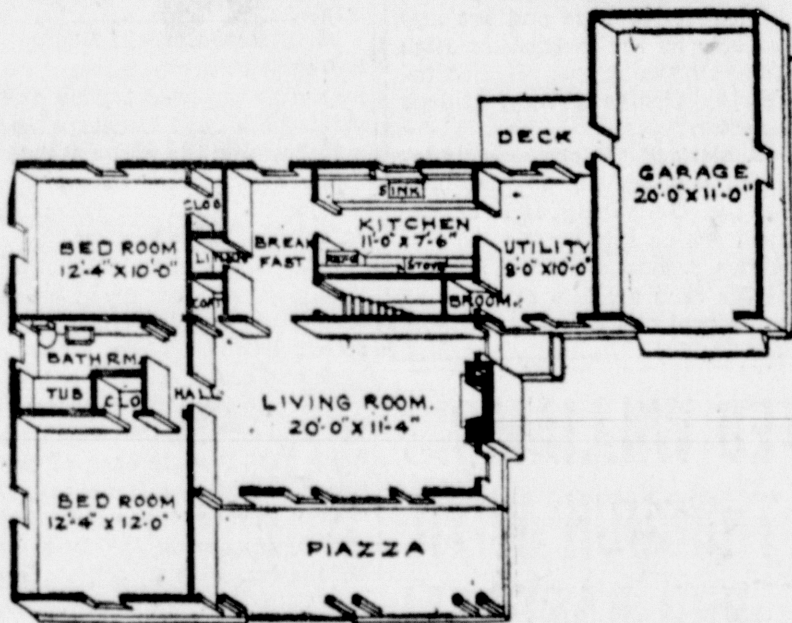

Overall dimensions, including the house, utility room and attached garage are 54'x30'. Hence, to build the house as illustrated a 75 foot lot would be required. Cubage of the house is 18,950 feet; cubage of the garage is 3,700 feet.

Because the architecture of "The Bell" is so decorative in itself, simple landscaping is most suitable and a clappedboard exterior — preferably white—is recommended.

Two entry ways lead from the front yard inside "The Bell." Protected by the front piazza, the main door opens directly in the living room. The other door opens in the well-lighted, 8'x10' utility room.

Just to the left of the door is the large broom closet which can easily hold a complete assortment of cleaning supplies. In the back wall of the utility room is another door which leads to the back deck. Two windows provide plenty of light and ventilation for the utility room, which is large enough to hold complete home laundry equipment.

From the sun deck a door leads directly into the 20'x11' garage. Connected directly with the utility room, the all modern kitchen contains a complete array of modern kitchen equipment including work counters, cupboards and cabinets. The sink is conveniently placed in the center of the line of counters and directly under the window.

Welcome extra county space is provided between the refrigerator and stove. Actually a room apart from the kitchen, the breakfast area is equally suitable for use at all meals. One large window provides ample light and ventilation for the room. In the left wall is the spacious linen closet.

Stairs to the full cement basement lead down from the breakfast room. A good sized closet, where guests can hang their wraps, is located in the living room just to the left of the door from the breakfast room.

As pleasant as it is spacious, the living room boasts five windows. The large fireplace centered in the right wall is the most attractive decorative feature of this room. The long back wall is an ideal backdrop for large furniture pieces. This room "can double" as a formal dining area.

Two windows, placed in adjoining walls, assure good lighting and cross ventilation for both bedrooms in "The Bell." Measuring 12'4"x12", the front bedroom is the larger and is designed to serve as the master bedroom. Both have large closets. Conveniently located between the two bedrooms, the all modern bath contains both a tub and a shower and receives ample light and ventilation through the one window in its left wall.

The heating plant should be placed under the living room.

ACCUSE LAWYER OF KILLING HIS OWN DAUGHTER

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — Attorney James T. Roberts, accused of killing his 6-year-old daughter and leaving her body on a lonely Miami beach, gets an extradition hearing today.

It was expected to be cut and dried proceeding. The 43-year-old Baltimore man told State's Atty. John E. Raine Jr. when he gave himself up shortly after midnight that he was willing to return to Florida.

Roberts, accompanied by his wife, law partner and minister, walked into police headquarters about four hours after prosecutor George A. Brautigam of Dade County, Fla., had ordered him arrested.

About an hour earlier, he had called Raine and asked if a warrant had been issued for him. Told there was a warrant, he said, "Ok, I'm coming in."

Girl Stolen, Slain
Deputy sheriffs Earl Vanno and William McCrory of Dade County said they would leave for Florida with Roberts immediately after the hearing.

Roberts' 6-year-old daughter, Judith Ann, was stolen from the home of her grandparents in Miami July 7. Her body was found a few hours later in a thicket on Biscayne Bay. She had been beaten and strangled.

A grand jury returned a secret indictment in Miami last Friday. Its contents remained a secret until Brautigam made them public here last evening.

The two-count indictment accused Roberts, "John Doe and or Mary Roe" of premeditated murder and "an attempt to perpetrate an abominable and detestable crime against nature or kidnapping."

Brautigam said, "we know there was at least one other person in on this."

IKE PREPARES BEEF STEW FOR 175 IN DENVER

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower, playing the role of supervising chef, invited more than 175 guests to a beef stew lunch today.

The guests included several longtime friends who have been Eisenhower neighbors the many years he has been spending Colorado vacations at the home here of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John S. Doud.

Invited, too, were quite a few Denver business men who are golfing pals of the President. Also asked were a couple of fellows who make a living at golf and give Eisenhower a few pointers — Ed Dudley, the pro at the Augusta National Club in Georgia and at Colorado Springs, and Ralph (Rip) Arnold, pro at Denver's Cherry Hills club where today's luncheon was being held.

Newsmen Invited
The President also invited about 40 newsmen who have been covering his activities here. He said they were to have a half holiday today and gave instructions that everything at the luncheon, except the beef stew recipe and guest list, was off the record.

Close friends of Eisenhower have been telling for years about his beef stew, a ritual-like preparation usually several days in the making. Here's the recipe:

First off you get 20 pounds of prime round steak — something considerably better than the "stewing meat," the White House calls it. Also eight pounds of small Irish potatoes, six bunches of small carrots, five pounds of small onions, 15 fresh tomatoes, three gallons of beef stock made from marrow bone with a bit of meat on it, salt, pepper, and a bunch of bouquet garniture, made of thyme, garlic and bay leaves.

Start Beef Ahead

With the ingredients ready, you start your beef stock two or three days ahead of your beef stew party. At Cherry Hills it has been simmering since Saturday.

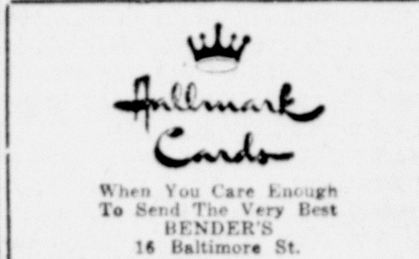

Several hours in advance of the dinner hour put in the stew meat and cook it slowly in the beef stock until tender. Cook that mixture until the vegetables are done.

Then draw off two gallons of beef stock and thicken it slightly with beef rue. In this case, the rue is a mixture of about a pint and half of the fatty substance on top of the beef stock, and about a pound of flour. The rue should simmer 10 to 15 minutes before being used to thicken the stew.

Pour Back
After it has simmered, pour it back into the stew. Then let the whole concoction simmer for an hour and a half and serve.

Brew Italian-roast coffee — the kind designed for demitasse in the standard way, using two tablespoons of coffee to each six ounces of water. Pour the hot coffee over ice cubes in tall glasses and pass the cream and finely granulated sugar. You'll have a cool beverage with dark rich color and excellent flavor, even though it has been poured over ice, because this type of coffee is double-roasted and of good strength.

When an Alaskan brown bear stands erect it can tower nine feet high.

Two Months Of Flowers In Spring, All From Bulbs

For two months in the spring, fall planted bulbs supply most of the color in garden borders, with the least care of any flowers, because they blossom before weeds grow, or insects prey, or drought injuries garden plants.

A flowering bulb is a package deal. It contains, like seed, an embryo plant, plus food enough to nourish it until it produces a flower. The first flower will bloom with very little help from the soil it grows in, though feeding gives a larger flower. After blooming it requires extra food to develop a vigorous new bulb, for the next year's flower. If the soil is well drained and fertile, or plant food is supplied to make it so, tulips and daffodils will live for many years, giving a harvest of spring beauty every year.

The way the flowers are arranged, and the careful selection of varieties which give a succession of bloom over two months, are more important to a good display than planting large numbers of bulbs. In the early spring a small number of snowdrops, scillas, and crocuses, will make a big impression upon your family and friends, because they bloom when there are no other flowers to compete for admiration. Two dozen bulbs of each planted in groups will produce more conversation than many times that quantity of summer flowers. Snowdrops bloom as soon as the ground thaws out, and scillas, bluer than violets, then the blue and yellow crocuses, follow in succession.

Daffodils are the first major flowers of the spring. They are also the longest-lived in the average garden. In well drained locations bulbs will usually multiply, and need not be lifted until they crowd.
All the spring bulbs look much better when planted in informal groups rather than in rows, blocks, or masses. Five bulbs of one variety of tulips, or daffodils is the equivalent of a herbaceous perennial plant. Such groups may be planted in the border, in company with other flowers, or grown alone at accent points with other flowers as background. The earliest tulips to bloom come before the daffodils have finished. The variety Red Emperor is earliest. This is a species, or botanical tulip, which means that it is a wild form, not a hybrid.
The most highly bred class of tulips blooms next. These are the early single and double tulips which were bred to grow in "carpet" beds, formerly popular in this country and still grown in Europe. The early tulips have bright, primary colors, and grow uniformly on short upright stems, tailor-made to use as pigments in a pattern of colors, often resembling carpet designs. They bloom almost two weeks earlier than the tall, late flowering Darwins, and groups of them properly placed will help keep the display of garden color continuous.
The original tulips to be grown in European gardens were tall, late flowering varieties of the group now known as Breeders, or Mother bulbs. From these all other garden varieties are believed to have been bred, including the Darwins, and the Cottage clans. Breeder, Cottage and Darwin tulips are catalogued separately in the catalogues, but confused in the popular mind, all being termed Darwins as a rule. There is no reason to separate them in the garden, since all bloom together and their colors can be grouped in attractive harmonies.

GRIM CONCERN OVER OUTCOME OF LONDON TALK

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
LONDON (AP) — The key foreign ministers of the free world gathered in London today for a momentous conference on German rearmament that may decide whether Western Europe can stand unified in the face of Communist danger.

The West European peoples looked to the opening of the nine-power parley tomorrow with a grim conviction that their security was in the balance.

London's liberal News Chronicle set the tone, saying success of the conference was a "matter of life or death."

Dulles Flies In
U.S. Secretary of State Dulles flew into London last night and urged the West to move quickly in bringing West Germany into the Atlantic alliance.

"If we don't move rapidly — things could fall apart," Dulles said, adding, "we come here hopeful of good results because it is imperative there should be good results."

French Premier Pierre Mendes-France flew in from Paris soon after Dulles. "I am quite sure we will do very good and useful work at the conference," he said.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was due today from Bonn.

Confers With Eden
Dulles conferred for three hours with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden over dinner at the home of U.S. Ambassador Winthrop Aldrich.

He arranged a meeting this afternoon with Mendes-France in an effort to bridge the gap between Washington and Paris thinking on bringing West Germany into the western defense camp.

The United States, Britain, Canada, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg want quick rearmament of the West Germans within the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization, with NATO restrictions on German forces and weapons.

No Snubbing
Mendes-France, whose political life probably hinges on the outcome of the conference, has proposed controlled rearmament of the Germans within a seven-nation European alliance. He wants this European group, and not NATO, to exercise control over German arms.

In arranging a preliminary conference with Mendes-France, Dulles wanted the premier to nail down French conditions for German rearmament and an immediate grant of sovereignty to the German federal republic.

The U.S. secretary also hoped to dissipate the feeling that Wash-

GARDNER TELLS ADMIRERS THAT PRETTY YARD IS 'LOTS OF WORK'

By ALBERT S. FULING
The Associated Press

Our host and hostess were fashionable and thrifty. Their air-conditioned, ultra modern two-and-a-half-room apartment was streamlined in decor, with conversation pieces—mementoes of holidays in faraway places.

The after dinner talk, however, was not directed to the glamorous faraway places or even to Manhattan's magic—their ever-favorite theme.

To our amusement and amazement, they chatted excitedly of their discovery on a recent visit to their suburban home of the glory of green and growing things.

Grass Is Greener
"Now," they said, "we want a house in the suburbs with lots of ground, lots of beautiful trees, lots of lawn and lots of shrubs—and above all, a flower garden like yours."

On their visit to Suburbia, they had been fascinated by the number and variety of birds which came to drink and dunk in the bird bath handy to the shrubs which screen the terrace. They marvelled over the brilliant red-orange Tithonia, and were flabbergasted at the strange velvet of the Cockscomb. They asked the name of each and every flower.

A border of low-growing white petunias, backed up by the true blue of Anchusa sent them into raptures. Our red Pinocchio—and golden masterpiece roses were beautiful beyond words, they said.

Suburban Life
To step from a living room to a flagstone terrace and then to a lawn area, bordered by trees and shrubs, was a pleasant experience.

We were not prepared to find them dreaming aloud of a brand new dream.

A commendable dream, of course, but for two whose chief agricultural pursuit so far was picking cherries—from the bottom of cocktail glasses—it would bring problems and challenges they didn't even surmise existed.

These Big City sophisticates would be babes in our neck of the woods. We felt a bit responsible for the big ton has been snubbing Paris since the French Assembly's rejection of the European Defense Community.

step they firmly planned to take.

Back at the house on the hill, I took typewriter in hand and wrote:

Dear Jane and Bill: Thanks for the fine food, excellent wines and enjoyable times. It was a most pleasant afternoon and evening. We of course are delighted to find you wide-eyed about a garden of your own. But for friendship's sake, I must open your eyes a bit more. You must take a good look before you leap. You are fairly well fixed financially, but not well-heeled enough to buy the services of a full-time gardener. Your dream garden will have to be fashioned by your own tender hands. A flower bed rioting with blooms is a joy—but wishing won't make it grow.

You must spade, rake, plant, transplant, fertilize, water, mulch, cultivate, propagate, prune, trim, spray, weed, feed . . . all this takes time and work.

For a lush lawn, you don't just wave a wand. You wield a rake and pocketbook. You push a roller. You trundle a spreader up and down and over and back with lime, then spread grass seed. You travel miles on foot—not by ship, train or plane. Your travels keep you where you started from—home.

Blister Mementoes
You haven't been any place. Your mementoes are nice new blisters on tender hands. When the grass is grown, you take more trips—with the mower. Then with the little spreader again, you take further trips, to spread fertilizer. Then the hose comes out—or a sprinkler, for the fertilizer must be watered in or it may burn.

After all this, you mow, weed, feed, lime and—well, I hate to disillusion, but Santa Claus doesn't put it all on your ground.

The tools, for instance, in this little venture, are found in the garden shop. You take your pocketbook along.

The poise bed and the lawn only are the beginning. Maybe I had better not go on. All I want to do is give you the facts, ma'am—and sir.

Before you trade your city slicker for a garden coverall, make sure you are ready for working as well as living in the country.

Before you say, "That's for me," make sure you're for it.

There's a house and five acres for sale near here. You could rent it with the option of buying. The couple who had it wearied of commuting and became bored with continual lawn cutting, hedge trimming, shrub pruning etc. etc. The garden needs some work, but with some work and sweat, it could be the very garden of which you dream.

Affectionately . . .

P.S. If you decide to live the Simple Life, we'll extend calloused hands in welcome.

FRENCH COUPLE ENJOY SCOOTER TOUR OF U.S.

PARIS (AP)—A French couple young enough to honeymoon 11,000 miles over the United States on a motor scooter and 3000 like everything fine—except the cooking.

They learned to like hot dogs and hamburgers, but the rest . . . "The food is very different from France—is good to be back home," says pretty brunette Denise Baud, the 20-year-old bride who furnished the scooter as her dowry.

Perhaps it should be explained that Denise and Antoine Baud work at the Paris restaurant owned by Antoine's father and no French restaurant keeper thinks much of anyone else's dinner table.

Otherwise, the rambling trip over the United States was delightful. The happy young couple worried less about the long scooter jaunt than most travel agents would about a trip round the block.

"We were on honeymoon," Denise laughed. "Nothing mattered."

Likes The Falls
"I liked very much Niagara Falls. He liked the big bridges."

They packed 200 pounds of baggage on their scooter and simply took off. Denise speaking school-book English and Antoine none.

In slightly more than one month they visited New York, Washington, Raleigh, Atlanta, Birmingham, New Orleans, Houston, San Antonio, Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Chicago, Detroit, Buffalo and points between.

Forego The Wheels
The only time their tight budget really pinched was in Las Vegas. They couldn't afford to gamble.

In Texas, Denise said she couldn't understand the language.

Antoine took to Texas fine. He got a crew haircut and saw a cowboy. "Now we know is for realistic," Denise said. "No like move."

They stayed in motels, which they think are the best thing yet designed for motor scooterists, and would travel up to 300 miles daily.

Weather permitting, Denise wore shorts, which might explain why "Everybody kind for us because we are French."

BERNARDSTON, Mass. (AP) — Becoming a mother and a grandmother in the same day was quite and occasion for Mrs. Raymond Hubbard. Ten hours after she gave birth to a son, her daughter, Mrs. Donald Rose of East Deerfield, became the mother of a boy at the same hospital.

CLAIMING KING KNOWS HORSES

CHICAGO (AP) — William Hal Bishop is an old horse-trader who knows horses.

That, perhaps, explains why Bishop perennially leads thoroughbred trainers in Illinois. For the first half of 1953 he led the nation's owners with 83 winners, 61 seconds and 47 thirds.

Before taking up racing in the early 1940's, Bishop was a horse and mule trader. He estimates he bought and sold "almost a million" horses and mules.

Began With Caravan
He began with a caravan, trekking from farm to farm around southern Illinois. He'd camp out at night and always kept his trusty firearms handy in case of prowlers—human or otherwise.

Eventually, Bishop headed one of the largest mule and horse trading marts in the nation at Anna, Ill. It was there farmers by the thousands flocked to buy his stock. Prior to mechanization of the Army, Bishop sold thousands of horses and mules to the remount service.

Bishop began racing in Detroit with one horse. When that thoroughbred won, the old horse trader abandoned his auction business. He shifted operations to Illinois and experienced phenomenal success.

Forté Is Claiming

Bishop's forte is claiming, or trading horses. He usually keeps a stable of about 30 horses, but during the period of a year, his turnover brings about 100 horses under his banner.

Horsemen say he has few equals in detecting a horse's soundness. That's why, with ostensibly cheap horses the first half of this year, Bishop won $171,762 in purses.

"When I was buying and selling horses," says Bishop "I had to determine their soundness in a matter of split-seconds. That judgment meant the difference between eating and not eating."

"A work horse or a mule is the same physically as a thoroughbred. If they have infirmities, they have a way of showing them."

Contrary to popular belief, Bishop does not conduct a public stable in which a trainer charges $10 or $12 per day to condition a horse and gets a 10 per cent cut of his winnings.

INITIALING ADDS CLASS TO BATH ROOM FIXTURES

By The Associated Press

One of the easiest ways to attain a luxurious look for your bathroom is to brighten it up with some handsome monograms on shower curtain and towels.

Time was when monograms were expensive, but now, with the new automatic sewing machines and attachments, it's easy and thrifty to do them yourself.

Local sewing center experts suggest applied monograms as effective and simple. They advise selecting a fresh new color scheme for the bathroom as a starting point, choosing towels and shower curtains in a coordinated theme.

Handsome Combination
One effective combination is green and white. A plain white nylon shower curtain can have a huge monogram in green, and dark green bath towels are handsome when monogrammed in white. The applied monograms may be stitched on either with one of the new swing-needle machines or with the zigzag attachment on a standard sewing machine.

To make the appliques, first trace the monogram on the fabric and baste the whole square of fabric to the shower curtain or towel. Then, using either the sewing-needle machine or the zigzag attachment, stitch around the outline of the monogram. Use a small, sharp pair of scissors to trim away excess fabric.

You'll find this such an easy way of making monograms that you may want to stitch up a batch of handsome monogrammed towels for Christmas presents. They're always welcome.

SEXIER STOCKINGS

NEW YORK (AP) — With shorter skirt lengths predicted for this fall, The National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers has decided that women's stockings will be offered this fall in lighter, sexier deniers and a wider range of colors. If, as expected, shorter skirts arrive as the new style, then stockings are estimated to become about 20 percent of milady's wardrobe.

FBI Checks All Reports On Reds, Draws No Conclusions, Makes No Recommendations

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — What's an FBI report? How is it gathered? What goes into it? What's a raw file? Does the FBI evaluate its findings?

There's been heat, often more heat than light, in arguments over those questions as the FBI searches for subversives and security risks in government.

Say Jones works for a government agency in Baltimore. The FBI, with field offices all over the United States, gets a tip Jones is a Communist. It tells its Baltimore office to investigate.

Perhaps the information came from several FBI undercover agents in the party in Baltimore. They can't be called to testify at a hearing for Jones. So the FBI tries to get other information and witnesses that can be used.

Question Information
Or perhaps the information comes from a man named Smith. The FBI goes to him at once. Does he know for a fact Jones is a Communist? No. He heard it from Kelly. The FBI checks Kelly. He doesn't know either. Schwartz told him.

Schwartz is checked. He never told Kelly that Jones was a Communist. He had heard—he can't remember where—that Jones was at a party meeting June 8.

The FBI checks further, finds Jones couldn't have been at the meeting. He was in Florida on vacation June 8. The FBI Florida office found out that.

Since the FBI had picked up no other information linking Jones with communism, all along the line of its investigation, it drops the case. But suppose the opposite had happened.

Investigation Widens
Suppose Schwartz, although unable to recall who told him, had stumbled on accurate information and the FBI finds Jones was at a party meeting. The investigation widens.

Besides the FBI's Baltimore agents now digging deeper into Jones' life, the help of FBI agents in half a dozen states may be required to investigate him through people who formerly knew him or worked with him.

In addition to checking on Jones, the FBI checks on informants to see if there is any motive, besides wanting to help the government, for what they say. A rumor given to the FBI might be based on a grudge.

In some cases the information will come from its own undercover men in the party. In others, the information will be from people who have proven to be reliable—or unreliable—in the past.

The agents put every scrap of information in the reports which they send to the FBI headquarters in Washington. There a special section examines them. They divide their reports into two parts: administrative and investigative.

These two parts together are called the raw file. The administrative section is locked up in FBI files and is never disclosed outside the FBI. The investigative report is sent to the government agency which employs Jones.

That administrative section contains information on investigative techniques, information on why the agents went to the various informants and people who wouldn't make statements at all, the names of confidential informants who never want their identity revealed outside the FBI, and the unconfirmed rumors and gossip which the agents have picked up but which have no direct connection with the case.

When an FBI agent gets information from an individual he tries to get the statement in writing, and signed. If the individual makes a written statement but doesn't want his name disclosed, the statement goes into the investigative report but his name is kept secret in the administrative report in FBI files.

In the investigative report which goes to Jones' agency, the FBI notes that this particular information came from an individual who has been reliable in the past, appears reliable from a check made on him, or has proven to be unreliable.

The FBI, when it turns its investigative report over to Jones' agency, does not evaluate it by saying whether the FBI thinks Jones is a Communist or not. It draws no conclusions and makes no recommendations.

Any conclusions are left up to Jones' agency.

Three Kiddies, Baby Sitter Die Of Fumes

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—A Scranton woman returned home yesterday from a wedding party to find her three small children and their elderly baby sitter dead.

Dr. Paul E. Kabasko, Lackawanna County coroner, ruled the deaths were caused by accidental asphyxiation.

Mrs. Ruth Gospoderek told police she returned home at 1:30 Sunday morning to find the dead bodies. Patricia Ann, 21 months, was in her crib; Mary Jane, 5, was in bed, and 4-year-old Kathleen Ann was snuggled against the baby sitter, John Bell, 65, on the divan. Mrs. Gospoderek said she found an oven jet partially opened. Her husband, Jack, died last April.

SOME NATIONS SEEKING MONEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The World Bank was confronted today with a swelling appeal from underdeveloped countries for new sources of money to speed their industrial expansion.

Creation of a proposed "international finance corporation," as a World Bank subsidiary, was being pushed by more than 30 of the 57 nations represented at the joint annual meeting of the bank and the International Monetary Fund.

Several delegations were expected to speak up on the subject at today's meeting of the bank's Board of Governors which will take up the annual report of President Eugene R. Black.

Black's report, filed Saturday, indicated progress has stalled on organization of the proposed corporation which, unlike the bank, would lend to and invest in private enterprises in less-developed countries without obtaining from the governments concerned any guarantees of repayment.

Black reported that the countries on which the corporation would have to depend for its funds—the United States would be foremost—"are not at the present time prepared to commit themselves to subscribe the capital."

CHILD, TEEN-AGE SITTER KILLED

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—While police sought a frenzied slayer, funeral services were scheduled today for 4-year-old Stephen Goldberg, who died with his pretty teen-age sitter Saturday night in a savage knife assault.

Friends of slain Lynn Ann Smith, 14, were questioned by authorities yesterday on the theory she and the Goldberg youngster, son of a well-to-do wholesale meat dealer, might have been stabbed to death by someone who knew the young sitter.

Medical examiner W. A. R. Chapin said there was no evidence that Miss Smith had been attacked sexually.

Police, who ruled out robbery as a possible motive, said their one tangible clue is a girl's hat found on the Goldberg's front sidewalk. They questioned several girls in an attempt to establish ownership.

DEFENSE HINTS "REAL KILLER" TO BE NAMED

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Attorneys for Paul Graver open their defense of the 42-year-old Lehigh-ton man today as his trial for the murder of Mrs. Dorothy Gilhool continues in Luzerne County Court.

Chief Defense Counsel Thomas C. Moore has hinted he will "crack" the case and name the "real killer" of the 42-year-old Kingston woman. Her beaten and frozen body was found last December near a Harveys Lake tavern following a drinking party attended by Graver and others.

In his request for a weekend adjournment, Moore told Judge Benjamin H. Jones that it is "very possible that we can crack this case."

State's Case
Asked later by newsmen to expand on his statement, he said only that it is not the duty of the defense to "show who committed this crime" but in this case, it is very possible "we can show 'who done it.'"

The prosecution, which has rested its case, contends Graver and Mrs. Gilhool quarreled about attentions paid her by another man and that she followed him to his room where she was struck during an argument. The state further charged that Graver later carried the woman, unconscious but still alive, to the spot where she was found 35 hours after she turned up missing. She died of a fractured skull.

Mrs. Gilhool's husband, Joseph, runs a casino at the lake, a summer resort community, and Graver was employed there. He is married and has a nine-year-old son.

BOY KILLS HIS GIRL; SUICIDES

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa. (AP)—Two people were dead today and a third in critical condition in the aftermath of a broken romance.

Police said 25-year-old Robert Weible of nearby Stevens Point shot and killed his 17-year-old sweetheart, Mollie Clapper of Susquehanna, wounded the girl's mother, then shot himself through the heart yesterday.

The mother, Mrs. Emma Hendrickson, 37, was in critical condition at Binghamton, N.Y., Hospital, 30 miles from Susquehanna. She was shot through the stomach.

Police Chief Willard Collier said the girl had been dating other boys and that Weible went to her home where they argued. Weible, an Army veteran, apparently didn't plan to shoot himself, Collier said, since a suitcase filled with his clothes was found behind the Hendrickson home.

Homicide Witness Commits Suicide

FREDERICK, Md. (AP)—A woman under bond as a material witness in a homicide killed herself yesterday after she had called to her employer, "I think I'll shoot myself."

Sheriff Horace Alexander said Riva Wiles Clary, 38, who was to have testified at the trial of William W. Bennett, shot herself in the head. She had testified last week before a grand jury which indicted Bennett on a charge of "assault with intent to murder" Charles H. Harmon.

The sheriff said the suicide occurred at the home of Albert Stollings near Lewistown, where she worked as a housekeeper.

Mrs. Hendrickson's husband, George, and five other children were asleep at the time of the shooting.

Quadruplets occur about once in every 657,000 confinements.

YOUNG PLAYERS ARE STRICKEN

BALTIMORE (AP)—The normally healthy appetites of youngsters worked against a group of Little League players from the Chambersburg, Pa., area over the weekend.

The youngsters, with their sponsors, came here Saturday to watch the Baltimore Orioles play the Chicago White Sox. Instead, they were stricken with food poisoning as they sat in the stadium here.

Some chicken salad sandwiches the group—from Fayetteville, New Franklin, Quincy and Mont Alto, Pa.—had eaten on buses en route here were blamed.

Dr. Erwin E. Mayer, Orioles' physician, treated the youngsters with the aid of a group of nurses from Union Memorial Hospital who were watching the game.

Stretcher Bearers Busy
Stretcher bearers were kept busy carrying the unlucky youngsters from the top deck of Memorial Stadium to the first aid room. And a fleet of four ambulances ran shuttle service from the stadium to nearby hospitals.

In all, 50 youngsters and more than 20 of their sponsors were stricken. Thirty-seven of the children and 24 of the adults were taken to the hospitals. All but 12 adults and three youngsters were kept overnight. They were released yesterday.

Dr. Mayer examined one of the chicken salad sandwiches the group brought along and said there was no doubt they were tainted.

TO HONOR PULASKI
DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower today issued a proclamation designating Oct. 11 as Gen. Casimir Pulaski memorial day, honoring the Polish count who fought for this country in the Revolutionary War.

FIRE THREATENS 2 COMMUNITIES

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)— Grimy crews ignited backfires and carved new firebreaks in heavy timber early today in their battle to stop flames threatening to invade two evacuated communities in the San Bernardino mountains.

The fire, which already has destroyed three small structures and 5,000 acres of brush and timber, forced nearly 1,000 persons from the resort settlements of Cedar Pines and Job's Peak in the San Bernardino National Forest yesterday.

The blaze is the most serious of eight forest and brush fires still burning in California. In five days these and other fires in the state have cost three lives, at least a dozen homes and 19,000 acres of watershed cover.

Only the fire near here and a 750-acre blaze near Los Padres national forest not far from Monterey remain out of control.

PRIVATE PLANE CRASHES: SELINGROVE, Pa. (AP)—Two men escaped injury when a private single engine plane crashed into a farm near Beaver Springs.

State police of the Selingrove barracks said the pilot and owner was Harold Henry Goss, 30, Lewis-town. His passenger was identified shaped harbor and its mile-long coast resembled a great naval disaster scene of the Pacific war. Wrecks of five ships and literally hundreds of small craft littered the beach.

The sand was dotted with bodies, many wearing life jackets which had failed to save their lives in the raging surf.

Smashed lifeboats, shattered timbers, oil and all the flotsam and jetsam of a sea disaster covered the beach.

Huge Fire Kills 32

"We've got a terrible thing up there," said Col. John C. Randolph commander of the U.S. Air Base at Misawa, who flew over the scene.

In the town of Iwanai, 90 miles north of Hakodate, 32 persons died in a fire which destroyed 3,000 of the town's 4,500 houses in a few minutes. Forty-four persons were injured and others are missing, authorities said.

Hakodate was without light or power. Emergency generators were put into operation to floodlight the disaster scene inside the breakwater, where the oily keel of the Toya Maru was visible above the still-churning water.

Freighter Sinks

Japan's maritime safety force reported one other ocean freighter sunk, five grounded and one damaged in the storm. More than 1,100 small craft, mostly fishing boats were lost, beached or damaged.

Twenty-seven patrol boats, six landing vessels, three mine sweepers—all Japanese—combed Hakodate bay for bodies and possible survivors. They were assisted by U.S. air and naval units, Kyodo News Agency said.

The U.S. Far East Command announced that 57 American military personnel were aboard the Toya Maru and that one was known to have survived.

WOOD PLEDGES AN "OPEN DOOR" ADMINISTRATION

HARRISBURG (AP) — Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood says he will conduct an "open door" administration if he is elected governor.

The Republican candidate for governor said in the same week-end statement that his Democratic opponent, Sen. George M. Leader, cannot "truthfully promise his administration would be a people's administration."

"My administration will be an open door—not an administration of sinister, smoke-filled secret parleys to determine who gets the job, patronage and the multimillion dollar payoffs in state contracts," Wood declared.

"I will be a full-time governor, following the dictates of my own conscience. When I sit in the governor's chair I will not engage in any private business to distract attention from my official duties," Wood promised. "My time will be the people's time."

"Service To The Public"

"The policy of my administration will be service to the public, not service to any hidden master lurking in the background for special privilege and special favor."

"I will expect employees of the state to devote the same full time to their jobs as I intend to give to mine, as long as they do their work, loyal, faithful employees need not fear dismissal."

Miles Horst, state GOP chairman, said he found "a strengthened spirit of unity and cooperation" among his party's followers throughout the state. He said Wood's campaign "is going ahead in great shape."

Wood will deliver a campaign address over a 13 station television network from Philadelphia tomorrow night.

The itinerary for GOP statewide candidates the remainder of the week: Tomorrow—Juniata, Mifflin and Clinton counties; Wednesday—Tioga, Bradford and Susquehanna; Thursday—Wyoming, Sullivan and Columbia; Friday—Union, Perry and Cumberland.

900 GET INJECTIONS

ELIZABETHTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The local school board ordered gamma globulin injections for 900 more Elizabethtown school children following three new polio cases in this Lancaster County area.

The inoculations, ordered Saturday, followed similar measures taken last week for 200 students.

representative of the accusations. The committee found McCarthy guilty as charged in category one—that he was contemptuous of the Senate and of the privileges and elections subcommittee which in 1952 studied his financial operations.

The committee's conclusion on the initial category was blunt: "It is, therefore, the conclusion of the select committee that the conduct of the junior senator from Wisconsin toward the subcommittee on privileges and elections, toward its members, including the statement concerning Senator Hendrickson acting as a member of the subcommittee, and toward the Senate, was contemptuous, contumacious, and denunciatory, without reason or justification, and was obstructive to legislative processes."

"For this conduct, it is our recommendation that he be censured by the Senate."
